  "suspicious_indicators": [
    "Suspicious URL in email body: https://login-verify-paypal-security.com",
    "Attachment with a .zip extension",
    "Urgent language ('open it quickly to win your prize')",
    "Mismatch between displayed URL (paypal.com) and actual link (login-verify-paypal-security.com)"
  "reasons": [
    "The email contains a link to a domain that appears to impersonate PayPal but is not the official PayPal domain.",
    "The email urges immediate action, a common tactic used in phishing attacks.",
    "The presence of a .zip attachment increases the risk of malware.",
    "The sender's email address is a public email provider (Gmail), which is often used in phishing attempts."
  ],
  "recommended_action": "Exercise extreme caution. Do not open the attachment. Do not click the link. Independently verify any claims made in the email through official channels (e.g., by logging into your PayPal account directly)."
